Articles have been written and blogs have been posted about the challenge of social media in the workplace. Does social media have a place in the workplace? And how does leadership manage that? That issue will be the topic of conversation at Kilgore Economic Development Corporation's luncheon for human resource professionals

Thursday, Dec. 3. Rosemary Jones, attorney with Ramey & Flock of Tyler, will be our guest speaker.

Topics include:

- What is social media?
- Uses of social media in the workplace
- Company policies concerning social media
- Legal implications with social media use at work

Ramey & Flock is a Tyler-based law firm founded in 1922 and represents individuals and corporations in complex trial litigation and business matters in East Texas and throughout the state. The firm's expertise covers a wide range of disciplines, including labor and employment, Internet and telecommunications.

The luncheon will begin at 11:30 AM in KEDC's Synergy Center at 1001 Synergy Blvd., Suite 100. The program will conclude after lunch at 1:00 PM. For reservations contact Jana Russell at jrussell@kilgore-edc.com or 903.983.3522.
