
KEDC leader named ?to international board

By Jana M. Russell

Published: 07/13/2010 - 09:23

Kilgore Economic Development Corp. Assistant Director Lisa Denton was elected to a three-year term on the Business Retention and Expansion International board.

Denton has been with the Kilgore Economic Development Corp. since 2004 and assists in all of Kilgore's economic development.

She is certified through the National Development Council, has completed the basic economic development course from Texas A&M and has earned Economic Development Finance professional certification.

For more from the Longview News Journal click HERE.